They Eat, Drink and Sleep in Sympathy and Comfort.

There seems to be every indication at the Charity Hospital to-day that the long-looked-for union between the shinbones of Johnnie Gethius and his spaniel Yip has actually begun. although, as heretofore, this opinion is wholly a matter of conjecture and not one based upon positive knowledge of facts.

Both Johnnie and Yip were resting comfor ably when an EVENING WORLD reporter called at the Hospital this morning.

Their individual pulse was reported normal and an utter absence of faver, restlessness of excitement in each patient was regarded as most favorable to the success of the bone-

Actress Florence Sherwood's Strange Treatment by Hospital Authorities.

The story of how pretty, graceful Florence Sherwood, the actress, got into the insanward at Bellevue Hospital, as told by those in terested in her, reflects no great credit upon the hospital service of this great city.

Florence Sherwood is the twenty-three-year

Will Yale defeat Princeton? This is the question which football experts are seking each other regarding the issue of the great football game to be played to-morrow at Eastern Park between the Yale and Princeton elevens for the intercollegiate championship and in the presence, probably, of 25,000 to 80,000 spectators.

The defeat of the Yale team at the hands and feet of Harvard last Saturday has not by any means detracted from the interest centring in the great Thanksviving Day contest. Yale's experience at Springfield will serve only to m ke the sturdy wearers of the blue

After their visit to the secret chamber, House Surgeon Newman was sent down to the Warden's office for a drill and scalpri, and it was at first supposed that Yip had given cut, that the plaster cast was to be removed and that the "understudy" was to be substituted, necessitating the performance of the operation anew.

The fact that the understudy still stood on four legs this morning in the hospital basement rather tended to disprove this theory, and it was also learned this morning that Dr. Newman's securing the drill and scalping the drill and scalping the performance of the operation anew.

Imposing Naval Ceremonies-Seen from the Pulitzer Building.

When the sun rose like a huge ball of fire this morning its rays were reflected from the polished brass-work on the Brazilian war ships at anchor of the southwest soit ship channel. Near them the Yorktown and Dolphin, of Uncle Sam's North Atlantic Equadron, rode gracefully at anchor. The National engine both republics floated out upon the crisp n roing air. Preparations were early made for weighing
